

Willow Way

"THE SISTERS ARE PROLIFIC WRITERS, WRITING HONESTLY ABOUT LIFE."

- The Edmond Business Insider

Willow Way are an indie-folk rock/Americana band fronted by sister singer-songwriters, Melanie Schmidt and Jenn Easley. Their vocal harmonies and folk-influenced songwriting derive from influences such as First Aid Kit and The Civil Wars.

SOCIAL MEDIA: @willowwaymusic
www.willowwaymusic.com

LICENSED BY:

- Netflix
- USA
- The Discovery Channel
- The Oprah Winfrey Network
- E! Television
- MTV

FEATURED ON:

- Women of Substance Music Podcast
- Best America Country Nominee: Rossy 2017 Awards for The Roswill Film Festival
- KOSU Radio
- The SPY FM
- Boombox FM
- Oklahoma Film & Music Office: Music Artist of the Month
- Grounded Sounds Podcast
- The Oklahoman
- Uncovering Oklahoma Entertainment Blog
- FOX 25 News
- Live and Amplified Podcast

DISCOGRAPHY:

- Chasing Ghosts, 2015 (EP)
- Cold Amber, 2017 (full-length)
- Jawbone, 2020 (single)
- Shattered, 2024 (single)
- A Mother's Confession, 2025 (full-length)